

4th Grade Newsletter

Week of March 13-17

What We are Working on this Week...

Reading: Week 3: Continue Genre: Historical Fiction. Stories: A Telephone Mix-Up, The Moon Over Star, and Star Parties. We will work on: 1. Citing relevant evidence from text 2. Making inferences to support understanding 3. Identifying the point of view in a story 4. Making, confirming, and revising predictions 5. Identifying the purpose of a sidebar and inset text features and 6. Analyzing how setting and dialogue develop the plot.

Math: Topic 9: Lines, Angles, and Shapes Test. Begin Topic 10: Fractions

English: Pronouns and Homophones (Quiz Friday)

Spelling: Variant Vowel /o/ (Test Friday)

Religion: Chapter 13: Sacraments in Church

Science: Lifecycle of a shamrock

Vocabulary List: decade, directing, engineering, gleaming, scouted, squirmed, technology, tinkering

Spelling Words: caught, laws, drawn, strawberry, straw, awe, shawl, alter, halt, talking, walker, chalk, stalk, small, caller, squall, cough, fought, thought, false

Review and Bonus words: south, pouch, annoy, wallpaper, awkward

Announcements and Things to Remember:

Mass on Friday. Formal uniform

Please charge iPads nightly.

Continue to review multiplication facts.

Please send a fleece or coat with your child daily. We go outside for recess most days.

If you are able, please send in a couple of boxes of tissues and a roll of paper towels. We are in need. Thank you, in advance!