

MRS. YAZVAC'S 6TH GRADE NEWSLETTER

February 13 - 17, 2023

It's Valentine's Week, 6th Grade!!!

Oh my, love is in the air!!! Or is it? Do our lovebirds have any eggs yet? Have you been checking in on them? What in the world are “crib rails?”

Please be extra careful about washing your hands and trying not to get too close to one another. If you are up in someone's face, “breathing their air,” you are too close. According to my doctor, there are some pretty nasty viruses going around right now. Masks are not required, but they sure can help. Decide what is best for you and respect everyone's decision. Middle school is a terrible time for “peer pressure.” I am glad that our class operates as a loving “family” and we are always careful to think of everyone's feelings. We never purposely do anything to make anyone feel bad about themselves. Thank you for that!

Remember, Tuesday is Dress Down for Valentine's Day - wear pink or red. Wednesday is Wacky Shoe Wednesday (to celebrate our shoe donation drive). Wear the craziest shoes you have on Wednesday (with your regular uniform).

Here is this week's plan for learning:

MATH - We will continue working with decimals, fractions, and percents. We will practice for Friday's Sumdog Challenge - multiplying and dividing by powers of 10.

RELIGION - We will practice our Vocabulary Set #3 words and continue reading about the Exodus. We will also be coloring some very nice posters you may take home for Lent.

♥♥♥ Love you like a Grandma, Mrs. Yazvac ♥♥♥
