

MRS. YAZVAC'S 6TH GRADE NEWSLETTER

Week of October 24 - 28, 2022

Greetings My "Pretties!"

Monday is the last day of the first quarter of this school year. Hmmm - 4 quarters in the school year. (That's the first 9 weeks and we have three more! How many total weeks in a school year? Email me to let me know.) The end of the grading period means we will have a raffle soon! We will also be changing our seating chart! Did you know we had one? We do, and some morning you will have a new one projected or posted to the board, and you will move your desk to its new location. I hope you are all happy with your new place in our classroom. I also hope you are happy with the report cards you will be receiving at the end of this week.

Wednesday is "Dress Down" day. Many of you will be wearing the tees you designed last Friday during Keepers. Wednesday evening is "Trunk or Treat!" That will begin at 6:30.

Here is the plan for Math and Religion this week:

MATH: We will continue working with Ratio Tables and the Coordinate Plane. You will be plotting ordered pairs in all four quadrants of the coordinate plane. You are all pretty good at that already!! Those pumpkins are beautiful!! Let's color them and hang them up! I believe you also have a 500+ number dot to dot mystery picture to complete!!

RELIGION: You will complete the Chapter 2 Review together and we will continue reading from there.

MR SAMMY WILL BE TEACHING: what he planned to do with you last week. I hope he is feeling much better!

Love you like a Grandma, Mrs. Yazvac
