

MRS. YAZVAC'S 6TH GRADE NEWSLETTER

Week of December 20 - 24, 2021

Busy, busy, busy - blessed!!

Merry Christmas, Sixth Graders!

We are almost there! THREE MORE DAYS!! I can see Christmas break from here! Just three more school days, three more BUSY school days! (Did I remember to tell you that there are THREE MORE DAYS?!) I loved your presentation on Friday, and, if there were a way to “Rick Roll” you on this newsletter, I’d do it!! That was perfect! Thank you, Ms. Vanessa, for helping me with that!

Back to this newsletter . . . On Monday, we are wearing ugly Christmas sweaters (or regular Christmas sweaters - whether they are ugly are not is a matter of opinion! I happen to think “the gaudier, the better!” Oh, and my ugly Christmas sweater will seem even more ugly to one student in particular. The first person who is able to figure out who that is and tells me “quietly” gets a treat!)

On Tuesday we may wear Christmas pajamas!! I love a good pajama day!! My pajamas won’t technically qualify for the day’s theme. The first person who tells me why (quietly) gets a treat!

And, on Wednesday, you will be performing music for Lessons and Carols. I am looking forward to that! (Were you expecting another chance for a treat! Lessons and Carols IS THE TREAT!!)

MATH: We will do some fun Christmas activities that include (wait for it) a little bit of MATH!!!! Math is everywhere all of the time!! There will be no official Sumdog assignment, but many of you still need to complete a skill before Christmas break!!

READING/ENGLISH/SPELLING: We will be discussing and writing about our family Christmas traditions.

RELIGION: You will discuss Christmas and celebrate the coming of our Lord.

Love you like a Grandma, Mrs. Yazvac

Upcoming Events: new items highlighted in yellow!
