

MRS. YAZVAC'S 6TH GRADE NEWSLETTER
Week of November 1 - 5, 2021

Greetings, 6th Grade!

We surely did have a nice Halloween party! Thank you to our parent helpers! I hope everyone had a great Halloween. As a schoolwide community service project, we are going to be sending candy to soldiers on Monday. If you would like to donate some of your Halloween candy, that would be great!

The Bishop is visiting this week (on Tuesday). We will be making sure our classroom (and our desks!) are presentable. We will be taking a picture and attending mass with the Bishop on Tuesday, so be sure to wear your formal uniform.

I feel like there is something happening this week that is going to cost me some money . . . I forget what it is . . .

Here is what I hope to cover this week:

MATH: We will continue working with Rates on page 34. We will also be helping Zac and Logan get ready for Math Field Day (this Thursday!) by doing some estimating every morning.

READING/ENGLISH/SPELLING: We didn't get around to researching Slovakia for our "Christmas Around the World" presentation last week. Oh well, I guess we should have been focusing more on Halloween. Oh, I forgot, we WERE focusing on Halloween! What a great party!

I hope to give you time to research Slovakia and meet with your group to begin brainstorming ideas for your Summer Reading Presentation.

Don't forget, we also begin our Saints presentations next week. The schedule is posted on the board. You people are busy, busy, BUSY!!!

We will be reading the new TFK magazine (it isn't posted yet - I will get that to you as soon as I can) and taking a Quiz at the end of the week as always. Don't forget to add new Power Words to Spelling Set #4

RELIGION: Continue The Christian meaning of Sacrifice

Love you like a Grandma, Mrs. Yazvac

Upcoming Events: new items highlighted in yellow!

If you had a birthday earlier this school year and I didn't add it to the memo, that is because I didn't have my neat stickers (Thank you, Annagrace!) I will be sure to add you to the memo at the end of the school year for Summer and Fall birthdays ahead!
