

Hello 6th Graders,

It's the week before Thanksgiving and the first full week of the new 9 week grading period. Everyone gets a fresh start this week! Yay!!! Please review "How to Succeed in My Classroom" in the little pink envelope on the bulletin board in my Bitmoji classroom. You really will do better if you follow this advice!

MATH: We made some beautiful art last week using the coordinate plane. This week we will finish graphing ratio tables in Chapter 1 Lesson 5, take a quick quiz to see if we learned anything, and begin Lesson 6 Equivalent Ratios.

There is a RESA VII Sumdog (that's 7 counties) Contest beginning at 8:00 a.m. on Friday November 20 and continuing until 8:00 p.m. on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday November 26. Contestants win one luxury item for their Sumdog house after they answer 100 questions. Top 10 Winners are determined by the highest number of correct answers out of 1,000. (It's a ratio!) Speed only counts in the case of a tie. You have a whole week to complete 1,000 math problems in a game format. Have fun with this and help put Saint Mary's School on the Sumdog Contest Leaderboard!

LANGUAGE ARTS: We will read the November 20 TFK articles (they didn't publish a separate issue after the election because the news was changing so quickly!)

SOCIAL STUDIES: We have been learning and preparing to present a performance about ancient Egypt. Our presentation will be this Wednesday and might just include a little culinary treat. We will also continue watching student news and discussing current events. We will get back to World War I after International Days.

RELIGION: Saints Projects will be presented every day this week. I am really enjoying your reports. We are all learning!
