

Our Kindergarten Classroom News

The Week of Dec 12-16

Email: sridenour@stmaryswv.org

Website: www.stmaryswv.org

Important Dates

- 12/13 - Dress Down in Red Day. The red signifies our support for the battle against drug use.
- 12/15 - Presentation by the Harrison County Drug Task Force Dog
- 12/16 - Mass - Formal Uniform
- 12/18 - Christmas Program at Immaculate Conception. Program begins at 3pm but students need to arrive by 2pm dressed in all black. This event is open to all.
- 12/19- Ugly Christmas Sweater Day
- 12/20 - Christmas Pajama Day/Christmas Party at 1:15pm
- 12/21 - Lessons and Carols at 11AM at Immaculate Conception

Reminders & Info

Dismissal on 12/21 is at noon following Lessons and Carols. There will be no keepers.

Christmas Break: December 22 - Jan 2

Students return on Tuesday, Jan 3rd.

What We're Learning This Week

Language Arts	Math	Religion	Science
The focus this week will be on a lot of reviewing, journaling, and reading in class. All Sight Word Review Writers Workshop/Journaling: "What I Want for Christmas..." Guided Reading in Small Groups Writing Sentences with Sight Words Assessing Reading Comprehension	School Days 68-72 Using these numbers to fill in ten frames and look at place value using tens rods and ones cubes Counting by ones Counting by tens Comparing Numbers: Greater Than Less Than 1 and 2 More 1 and 2 Fewer	The story of Jesus' Birth The Nativity Scene	Salt Crystals and the Scientific Method continued Social Studies Compare and contrast the ways humans adapt based on seasons and weather: Choosing the right clothes for your weather and location.

